The Master of Science in Traditional Asian Medicine program is approved by the California Acupuncture Board. Graduates who have successfully completed all graduation requirements are eligible to sit for the California Acupuncture Licensing Examination (CALE). Requirements related to application for CALE can be seen in <https://acupuncture.ca.gov/students/examination.shtml>. Requirements related to application for licensure as acupuncturist in the state of California can be seen in here <https://acupuncture.ca.gov/students/index.shtml>

Graduates from the Master of Science in Traditional Asian Medicine program of Alhambra Medical University are eligible to register for NCCAOM certification examinations. The NCCAOM is the only national organization that validates entry-level competency in the practice of acupuncture and Oriental medicine (AOM) through professional certification. NCCAOM certification or a passing score on the NCCAOM certification examinations are documentation of competency for licensure as an acupuncturist by 43 states plus the District of Columbia which represents 98% of the states that regulate acupuncture. Information related to NCCAOM certification, requirements and procedure can be seen in here <https://www.nccaom.org/certification/>. Information about state licensure requirements as the profession of acupuncturist across the United States of America can be seen in here <https://www.nccaom.org/state-licensure/>

Licensure Practice as Acupuncturist Across the States Checklist

Alhambra Medical University publishes a checklist information to guide the graduates from the program related with the information of the acupuncturist licensure checklist and eligibility across the states in the U.S. once they have graduated from the AMU Master's program.

This checklist can be accessed here (this checklist maybe updated according to the current available information).

Prospective and current students may inquire to the Dean of Students for more information or advice regarding licensure to practice acupuncture and traditional medicine in the state of California or outside of California. The list of states for which AMU Master program curriculum meets, does not meet or is unable to determine to meet each state educational requirements can be inquired as well to the Dean of Students.

Graduates are required to directly inquire to the local governing state board to acquire more accurate and detailed information regarding eligibility, requirements and procedures to practice acupuncture and traditional medicine in the related state.
